Women, Violence, And Social Change

R. Emerson Dobash Russell Dobash

the relationship between social science research and domestic violence activism. It explores how the feminist conception of domestic violence occurs in peacetime, intensifies during wartime, and continues in the aftermath of armed conflict. Women sometimes consider families and social change in terms of concepts of power, inequality. Storying Domestic Violence: Constructions and Stereotypes of Abuse in the.